West End Shows, based on BBC Learning English – News About Britain

Many people visit London only to see a West End show. The West End of London, situated a stone's throw from Piccadilly Circus and Chinatown, is home to dozens of beautiful theatres, which are currently enjoying a boom in popularity and ticket sales. According to the Society of London Theatres, nearly 12 million people attended a West End show last year. One possible reason for this success is the casting of Hollywood actors in lead roles. American movie stars performing in London include Oscar winner, Kevin Spacey, and David Schwimmer, who found international fame in the hit TV sitcom, Friends. Scottish actor Ewan McGregor is appearing in the classic 1950s musical Guys and Dolls. The longest-running shows in the West End are usually musicals. The Andrew Lloyd Webber show, Cats, ran for 21 years and 7000 performances, making its composer a multi-millionaire.
